A STORY OF QUALITY

Symbol of the most ancient traditions of the Bolognese territory, mortadella is the “pink queen” of many local dishes. Today it is also an excellence present on tables all over the world.

*Passion, experience and skill,
today as in the past*

Founded in Bologna as a small workshop dedicated in the production of cured meat, the company has a 50-year specialisation in the production of Mortadella and Mortadella Bologna PGI.

The company is today a third-generation family business, who has led Felsineo to become a market leader. Felsineo is a reliable partner of the biggest Italian supermarket and hypermarket chains. The majority of the top players has chosen it also for their own commercial private labels, thanks to its expertise, high quality standards, innovative ability, production flexibility, safety guarantees and, last but not least, the unquestionable goodness of its products. Felsineo is synonymous of high quality, passion, experience and competence: values that are at the basis of a vast range that includes also the innovative All natural Mortadella.

The certifications, together with the efficient monitoring of the production processes, have allowed access to markets otherwise unreachable, such as United States of America, Canada and China.
